If I wouldn't send them to my mom's house, they're not on the list.

I ASK AROUND

"Who's your guy for that?"

I DO MY HOMEWORK

Making sure they are really the guy.

I PICK THE GUY

This is my guy. No runner up.

I HOLD THEM TO IT

Still my guy, or they are off the list.

Not five roofers. Not ten plumbers. One name for each job.

I got tired of not knowing who to call.

Something would break and I was searching online, calling multiple companies and hoping I picked the right one. So I made the list I always wanted. I did the homework, connected with the owners, talked to homeowners who had used them, got bids, and found the company I would call for each job.

These are those companies.

Next time something breaks, you can call anyone. I would recommend starting here.

Keep it.

You will need a guy eventually.
